

OnTheTown

Your CBS stars caught in the act!

FOR THE KIDS

Rick Hearst (Whip, B&B) gathered some friends to lift some spirits at the Healing Arts Reaching Kids benefit

Hearst played emcee and auctioneer for the evening — which naturally required a sombrero! “It was fantastic,” the actor shared of the evening. “We raised a heck of a lot of money with the auction alone. People are now understanding what an arts-therapy program is and how important it is to these kids.” ▶

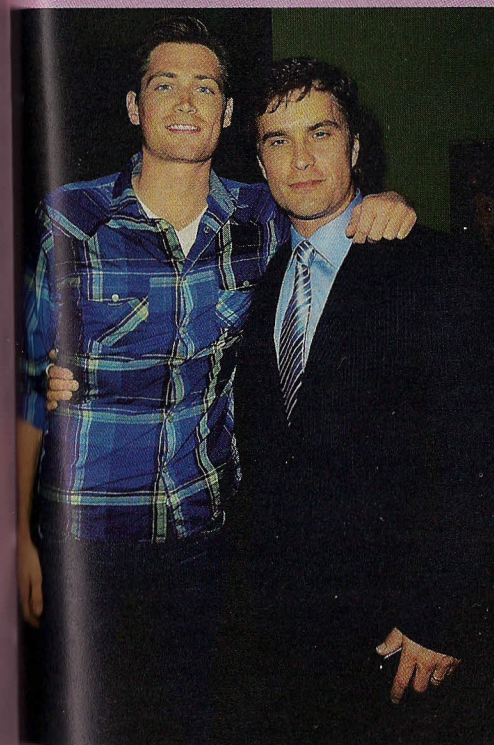

◀ Adam Gregory (Thomas, B&B) and his wife, Sheridan Nicole, showcased a few of the kids' art pieces that were up for auction. While Children's Hospital Los Angeles uses medicine to heal bodies, the HARK program uses art and music to heal the spirit!

HOWARD WISE/PISTUDIOS.COM

◀ Sean Kanan (Deacon, Y&R) threw in his two cents — and quite a bit more — trying his hand at a raffle. Between that, the auction and the '60s-themed dance, the organization's fifth anniversary turned out to be quite the party!

JILL JOHNSON/PISTUDIOS.COM

LEFT & ABOVE: HOWARD WISE/PISTUDIOS.COM

▶ There was certainly no shortage of warm, fuzzy feelings at the shindig. Ashley Jones (Bridget, B&B) cuddled up to Sarah Joy Brown (Aggie, B&B) for this picture-perfect moment!

◀ “[The event has] gotten so big that we'll probably have to have another venue next year,” said Hearst, here with co-star Zack Conroy (Oliver). “We were all super-pleased.”